

Blackburn Cathedral: 28 May 2015. Music & More online Supplement 2015. No 12

Photos taken at a Summer Garden Party in the home of Edward and Anitra Haythornwhite in aid of The Friends of Blackburn Cathedral Music

Left: Choral Scholar Rob Pritchard (who is about to move to Hereford as a Cathedral Lay Clerk), Anitra Haythornwhite, Helen Roberts, Choir-mum, and Vicky Brown

Canon Hindley's dog, Rufus, and Diane Tyer's dog, Jasper, enjoying the afternoon.

Edward Haythornwhite selling plants in aid of the music programme with choir-dad Keith Roberts and, far left, Renaissance Singer Judge Jeremy Duerden and choirparent Kate Fulwell.

'Many folk had worked their socks off to ensure the success of the day,' said Edward Haythornwhite.

Left: Canon Andrew Hindley, with Deputy Head Chorister Seb Roberts, whose anthem, God be in my head, had been sung by the cathedral choir that morning. (Seb is mightily talented!) ... and our hostess Anitra Haythornwhite.

Right: Head chorister Oliver Fulwell, with young chairman Harvey Finney who is about to begin his training to become an officer in the Merchant Navy.

Left: Choirmen Paul Fielding, Rob Pritchard (again) and Matthew Thomas.

Right: Former choirparents Sheila Walker and Betty Parkinson

Stalwart helper Marian Kitchin and choirman Paul Wakefield enjoying the sunshine.

It was a wonderful afternoon and highly successful for £725 was raised for the cathedral's music.

Thank you, Edward and Anitra and all your hard-working helpers.

If you love cathedral music and would like to help to ensure its continuance at Blackburn Cathedral, please email Edward Haythornwhite ehaythornwhite@gmail.com